GOVERNMENT AFTER THE TOBACCO TRUST

SUIT IS BEGUN IN THE FEDERAL COURT TO DISSOLVE TRUST AND APPOINT RECEIVER.

Special to the Herald.
New York, July 10.—Suits were begun in the Federal court today looking to the dissolution of the American Tobacco Company, known as the tobacco trust. The court is asked to appoint a receiver, and charges by the bureau of corporations indicate the trust has encompassed the entire world, and unless something is done will soon control the entire tobacco business of the world. The bureau tells of its apprehensions in the charges made, of the fictitious competition deception by which the trust has grown from a capitalization of $25,000,000 in 1890 to $275,000,000 now. It is declared that seventy-five per cent of the annual production of tobacco is purchased by the trust, and the growers are oppressed. The investigating committee declared hundreds of firms advertised as operating as independents were created and owned by the trust.
The charges filed are against more than sixty companies and twenty-nine individuals.
The government's counsel says the leaders in the trust are also threatened with criminal prosecution.
